called. He had just been up to N. Y. on the Reid bill and the group up there had asked two questions:

(1) On page 21, lines 2 and 5, which go into the employment and residence requirements, question was raised as to whether residence in the United States could be counted together with overseas residence.

(2) What if the individual had residence in the United States prior to employment?

I said you would give him a call.
